INTRODUCTION.

The "NONCONFORMIST REGISTER," more frequently styled the "NORTHOWRAM REGISTER," being now in the hands of the Subscribers, the Editor has confidence in reprinting his description of it:—

"No idea can be conveyed by such words as REGISTER or OBITUARY of the multitudinous and multifarious Entries in this valuable MS. of 300 pages, which is often referred to by such writers as the Rev. Joseph Hunter, F.S.A.

"The words 'PURITAN' and 'NORTHOWRAM' equally fail to describe its character and scope. It is a supplement to many of the West Riding Registers, particularly those of Halifax and Bradford, and exceeds in details of incidents anything I have seen. Popes, Kings, Princes, Peers, Judges, Justices, Parsons, Peasants, Doctors, Lawyers, Schoolmasters, Soldiers, Conformist and Nonconformist Ministers, Quakers and Centenarians find equal admission to these pages.

"Some hundreds of sudden deaths are recorded, and, which is very exceptional, the ages of deceased persons are generally given. The whole is spiced with remarks on character or possessions, notices of runaway weddings, and incidents 'too numerous to mention.'"

I am sorry that so long time has elapsed since the publication of the Register was announced. The delay has occurred in connection with the printer's arrangements. The Indexes have cost an incredible amount of labour, but having done the work alone, (probably 35,000 references,) I believe there will be found but few errors. There is a tendency in indexing to put the number of the page one too little, as 78 for 79.

As only a limited Subscription List can be expected for such books, economy has been a great feature in the get-up, but the accuracy has not suffered. It is an individual effort, backed by no public Society, at a third the cost of Society prices, and done by an Amateur pro bono publico.

The MS. has had a remarkable career for 240 years. It would seem to have been the property of Coley Chapel six years before Mr. Heywood became Curate there, and at the Ejection in 1662, he took the book with him. It was almost a blank book in 1650 when he became Custodian, and, as the names would be annually sent to the Registrar at Halifax Parish Church, there was little in it which would be thought of any interest. Mr. Heywood also kept a private Register in his VELLUM BOOK WITH ONE CLASP. On page 109, I have stated that these Vellum-Book records have been copied into the Northowram Register in a slightly more modern hand. There is little doubt that the copyist was Mr. Dickenson, not Mr Heywood as I thought at first. The perusal of some of Mr. Dickenson's MSS., at Mr. Swaine's, near Guildford, confirms this, and I am surprised how I should have mistaken Mr. Heywood's familiar handwriting. Just as the printer was drawing to a close, this identical "Vellum Book with One Clasp" came into my hands, along with several other volumes of Mr. Heywood's MSS. (Diaries, &c.), and I find that the additions to Mr. Heywood's portion of the Northowram Register will make about sixty pages. These, with his Diaries and Note Books, referring to his wonderful journeys and numerous acquaintances, will form a companion volume to the "Register" now in the Reader's hands, and will be issued speedily.

Mr. Dickenson (and this is very remarkable) continued the work his worthy predecessor had begun, for nearly another half century. Members of the Dickenson family seem to have made occasional entries afterwards. According to Mr. Slate, the "Register" became the property of the late Rev. Dr. Ryland. The late Joshua Wilson, Esq., of Tunbridge Wells, became the owner, rumour says, (though I cannot see any reason for it,) in return for a subscription to Northowram Chapel. He lent it to several gentlemen at Halifax, who made copious notes from it, and I had the promise of it, but as Mrs. Wilson could not find it again, I wrote (in my anxiety for its safety) to the Rev. Professor Newth, Librarian pro tem. for the Congregational Memorial Hall Library, to which Mr. Wilson had offered a large contribution of books. Prof. Newth found the MS., and for further favours I gladly return thanks to the Rev. Dr. Wilson and Mr. Knox Wilson.

The MS. is a small 4to, now inlaid in a firmly bound large 4to, bearing, on a fly leaf, the inscription:—"This Register having come into the possession of the late Joshua Wilson, Esq., of Tunbridge Wells, is presented by Mrs. Wilson to the Congregational Library Memorial Hall. The MS. being in a delapidated state and the leaves too closely written to admit of “binding, the whole has been inlaid in the present volume by my daughter, under my direction.—SAMUEL NEWTH, November, “1877.”

On the first fly leaf of the original Register are the following names (query—their purport) :

Jan. 10. 1660	Samuel Spencer	Mary Burkhead
James Tetlaw	Abraham Brigge	Sarah Burkhead
Mary Tetlaw	Judith Brigge	Anne Rushworth
Mary Roides	Susanna Brigge	Sarah Rushworth
Susanna Earnshaw	Mary Smith	Susanna Rushworth
Sarah Bland	Richard Murgatroyd	John Aked
John Kershaw	Abraham Nickol	Nathaniel Aked
John Wilson	Isaac Nickol	Joshua Bartle
Mary Kershaw	John Nickol	John Askwith
Sarah Pollard	Abigail Nickol	Mary Aked
John Mitchell	Nehemiah Burkhead	Hanna Aked
Will. Mitchell	Grace Burkhead	Sarah Thomas.

Some of Mr. Heywood's entries of funerals are erroneously numbered, it will be seen ; and it may be useful to state that the abbreviation minr. indicates minister, not minor.

Coley is one of the twelve ancient chapelries of Halifax Parish. It has no township, but the district comprises part of Hipperholme, Northowram, and Shelf, the Church being erected in the first-named township, on a bleak hill, hence its cold and winy name. From boyhood, Mr Oliver Heywood has been more than human to me. I do not wonder that Mr Dickenson left a blank leaf in the Register, and yet no record of Mr Heywood's death, for, years before I saw the Northowram Register, in a series of articles on Coley Church, I acted similarly, merely giving his name and a promise of future notice. Good Dr. Fawcett had only two of his MS. volumes, and even those two he could not read as he confesses, and as will be seen on comparing the volume of Mr. Heywood's Diaries, now in the press, with the Doctor's Life of Heywood. Mr Slate copies these blunders, yet reveals more of the inner life of the venerable Puritan. Mr. Hunter, as an accomplished antiquary, is thoroughly accurate. Yet all three fail to some extent ; the old man tells his own tale best. And tell it he shall, for by a singular and unexpected concurrence of events many of the original MS. volumes have been handed to me, and I have found that I could talk to and travel with my old friend, and find the half had not been told me. One hundred and eighty years have fled since his remains were deposited in the south chapel at Halifax Church, and nearly forty since Mr. Hunter's Life appeared, and I for one shall not be satisfied till every line of his MS. be printed, a worthy and useful memorial of one of Nature's noblemen.

I have compared most of Mr. Heywood's references to Bradford, Calverley and Bingley people, and many Halifax people, with the entries in the parish registers of those places, and am highly gratified, almost astonished, at his accuracy.

My Notes to the Register, alphabetically arranged according to Families, would without an effort take as many pages as the Register itself. An idea of this may be formed by consulting one article, that on the Rooks family, in the Bradford Antiquary. Similar articles can be compiled on scores of families mentioned in this Register. Indeed, I have come to the conclusion that this Register will have to be a local book of reference.

Calamy's Lives of the Ejected will be well known to most readers. Autobiographies of Capt. Hodgson, Joseph Lister, Thomas Wright, are only a little less known. Halley's Lancashire, Mr. Abram's Blackburn, and numerous other Lancashire publications may be consulted with advantage. Congregationalism in Yorkshire, particularly Mr. Scale's Notes in the Appendix, The Manchester Socinian Controversy, Whitaker's Funeral Sermons, and other similar books occur to the mind as rendering help in many cases. Indeed, of writing notes to this Register there is no end.

I rejoice greatly that there is a growing desire to publish Parish Registers. Those affording special help to this book are: Bradford Parish Register from 1596, in the Bradford Antiquary; Halifax Parish Register from 1538, a noble undertaking, and Calverley Parish Register from 1574, edited by my friend Mr. S. Margerison.

The publication of these Registers, and especially of the Diaries and other MSS. of Mr. Heywood render it advisable to postpone the notes to a future local work.

I gladly acknowledge my obligations to the Rev. B. Dale, M.A., of Halifax, for valuable hints; the Rev. C. B. Norcliffe, M.A., of York, for several notes from his vast collection; to Mr. W. J. Vint, for the loan of two plates; to Mr. W. Scruton, for artistic work on Northowram Chapel; to the Rev. W. H. Wawn, for the sketch of Coley Church; to Mr. A. B. Sewell, for permission to compare Heywood's Register with the Bradford Parish Register.

In common with all the members of the Yorkshire Archæological Association I have to deplore the sad loss by death of Fairless Barber, Esq., F.S.A. To him I was indebted for pointing out the treasures hid away in the Sessions' Rolls at Wakefield, and for preparing the way for their consultation. The fifty pages added to Heywood's Register is but a tithe of this subject. He commenced to publish notes on other topics in the Yorkshire Archæological Journal. Numerous favours, days of congenial intercourse, added to his special interest in the Life of the Rev. Oliver Heywood, and his desire to see the Heywood MSS. placed in a permanent form, render it obligatory that I should pay this slight tribute to the memory of a generous Christian friend.

I have some original notes respecting Mr. Dickenson and Northowram Chapel, culled from papers during a visit to Brabœuf Manor, Guildford.

Mr. Jonathan Priestley, of Winteredge, (Mr. Oliver Heywood's executor,) surrendered Northowram Meeting-house to Nathaniel Priestley, of Ovenden, on the 15th of August, 1710. On the 21st of June, 1711, the Meeting House was enlarged. The Subscribers were:—Jos. Wright £6, Nath. Lea, £2, Jere. Clay £2, Jere. Baxter £1, Joseph Wilkinson £2, John Priestley £2, Jno. Simpson £1, and Edwd. Hanson £1.

Mr. Swaine has also a manuscript of 44 pages, on Job 1. 21, "A Funeral Sermon preached at Northourum, March ye 4th, occasion'd by the Death of three Daughters of John Priestley of Westercroft, viz., Judith, who died Jan. ye 21st, in the 15th year of her age; Mary, who died Feb. ye 4th, in the 10th year of her age, and Hannah, who died Feb. ye 22d, in the 18th year of her age, A.D. 1710." The author, I presume, was Mr. Dickenson.

Another MS. of 61 pages is entitled "Exemption from Condemnation, Or the Privilege and Happiness of all True Believers in and by Christ Jesus, considered and improved in A Funeral Sermon on Rom. 8. 1, preached in Northourum, November 17, occasioned by the death of Mrs. Mary Priestley, widow, who departed this life November the 5th, 1734, aged 65, by Thomas Dickenson."

In 1717 Mr. Dickenson preached at the opening of a preaching room at Ossett. He had been one of Mr. Frankland's students.

On the 22nd January, 1722, Mr. Jonathan Priestley, of Winteredge, yeoman, made his will. He directed his body to be buried "in Mr. Heywood's grave, next to my dear wife's grave."

Winteredge he bequeathed to his nephew Jonathan Priestley, then living with him; Dodge Holme in Ovenden, which he purchased of Timothy Heywood, deceased, late of Sheffield, apothecary [son of John and grandson of Oliver], he gave to his nephew Nathaniel, son of his brother John Priestley, of Westercroft, deceased; his lands in Shelf, purchased of Mr. Wm. Walker, of Crow Nest, he left to his nephew Jonathan, &c.

In 1734 John Speight sold the double stall or pew in the middle row of seats, "late my father-in-law's, Abraham Milner," for 5s. to Thomas Dickenson, John Clay and Nathaniel Priestley, three feofees.

Mr Nathaniel Priestley, in 1749, gave ground and stones for a minister's house at Northourum. The original receipt, dated 1750, giving the amount of cost at £189 14s. 8d. is preserved at Guildford. For repairs to the chapel house at Northowram, Nov. 15, 1767, the following subscriptions were paid: Nathaniel Priestley and John Priestley, ten guineas each; Benj. Dickenson, John Ramsden and James Pollard, five guineas.

The name of the Rev. Thomas Drake, D.D., of Lambeth Palace, in 1786, appears as a Trustee for Northowram School. About the same time the following persons were proposed Trustees for the Chapel: Mr. John Priestley, Mr. Benj. Dickenson, Mr. Wm. Dickenson, Mr. James Pearson, Mr. Wm. Prescott, Mr. Benj. Irvin, Mr. David Asquith, Rev. Mr. S. Walker, Mr. Tho. Clark, Mr. W. Mitchell, and Mr. Richard Fawcett.

"Whereas Mr. Jonathan Priestley the elder, of Winteredge, did by his last will bequeath an annuity to the minister at Northowram, and Mr Jonathan Priestley his representative proposes to pay £20 in lieu, we acknowledge the receipt of the said sum: Samuel Walker, minister, Nathaniel Priestley, Timothy Bentley, Jos. Wilkinson, Jno. Ramsden, Benj. Dickenson, John Priestley."

The Rev. Robert Hesketh was minister of Woodkirk, or Topcliffe, in 1736, Eastwood in 1739, and Northowram in the spring of 1744. He was educated at Glasgow, and was also minister at Bolton-le-Moors some time. At Northowram he records that he received 10s. 6d. for a funeral sermon for Mrs. Wilkinson, and £8 from London during the first quarter. "Since May 30, 1744, (he writes,) the day when my family fixed at Northowram, received in presents—Joshua Robertshaw, 5s., Mrs. Priestley, chinay, 7s. 6d., Mrs. Ingham, two chinay

By his marriage he was related to Capt. Pickering, of Tingley, and the Lords Eure. Mr. Joseph Swaine (of an ancient Bradford family,) married Mr Hesketh's daughter Bathshua, in 1744, and their eldest son Robert Swaine married Hannah, daughter of Nathaniel Priestley, of Northowram, in 1769. To follow up the Priestley and their allied families would require a little volume to itself. Mr. Hesketh was interred at Northowram Jan. 23rd, when Mr. Haggerston, of Ossett, preached, and on the following Sunday, Jan. 30th, Mr. Walker preached. The stone in the yard records:—“ H. M. C. M. S. Reverendi Roberti Hesketh, “ olim in Academia Glasguensi Instuti qui Evangelii 52 et hujus “ Ecclesiae 29 Annis concionator Præclarus Eruditus non “ mediocriter ac Moribus Inculpatis habebatur in Christo excessit “ e Vita Jan. 19. die, A.D. 1774, Æ. 77. Necnon Helenæ “ uxoris charissimæ ejusdem ” &c [the rest covered with soil.]

A sundial bearing the inscription—1780, Tempus Fugit, Ingruit Mors,—is throwing about (to use a Yorkshireism) in the grave-yard. I may be excused giving these few memorabilia when I state there is not the slightest vestige of deeds or manuscripts referring to the old chapel, and very little indeed concerning the modern “ Heywood Chapel ” though erected solately as 1837, preserved at Northowram, or known of by the Trustees.

Only two or three relics of the old chapel can be identified. It stood nearer the highway as may be traced by the old gravestones. Reared against the adjoining cottages is one that claims special attention: “ Under this monument lieth the “ Body of the Revd. Mr. Thomas Dickenson, a worthy Minister of “ the Gospel, who was eminent and exemplary for piety and usefulness, behaved well in all stations of life, with meekness and “ universal charity. He was continued a shining light in this “ place 42 years and died comfortably and much lamented the “ 26th December, 1743, aged 74. “ Also two of his sons who “ died in their minority. Also Thomas his son who died Nov. “ 24. 1754, aged 51. Also John his son who died June 25, 1764, “ aged 51. Also Hannah his wife died at London July 28, 1765,” [the rest is below the soil.] A stone near records: “ Ann “ widow of late Rev. Mr. Pendlebury of Leeds, died 2 July, 1755, “ aged 59. Also Hannah, Thomas and Ann, children of Benjamin “ and Ann Dickenson.”

On pages 48 and 80 will be found references to 'a little velum book with one clasp.' These notices occur on page 56 of Mr. Heywood's MS. along with the following memoranda:—The children that I have baptized at home and abroad from A.D. 1682 till A.D. 1695 you may find in a little book with one clasp bound in velum the names and number whereof is 213 till Dec. 28. 1694, there you may find them. Turn back 13 leaves and you'll find them taken out of that Book.

DECLARATION OF INDULGENCES.

It should be stated that Mr. Heywood's Register is arranged for three columns to a page, for baptisms, marriages, and burials or "funerals," as he sometimes heads it; but he seems to have utilized vacant columns and spaces in the Register by transcribing from 'the little velum book with one clasp' the entries he refers to. This accounts for many of the columns being written in a slightly more modern hand. The whole of the entries to within a few days of his death are, however, in his own handwriting. It is worthy of remark that two pages are left blank before Mr. Dickenson, his successor, resumes the entries, and not one word as to Mr. Heywood's death and burial occurs. He, who had been so particular in noting the deaths of his friends, and who was succeeded by a minister as particular as himself, has no line in his own book in which his death is recorded. Yet those two blank pages speak volumes. Even the Revs. Dr. Fawcett, Richard Slate, and Joseph Hunter, have not exhausted the lessons to be derived from the life and writings of good Oliver Heywood.

Before proceeding to copy from Mr. Dickenson's portion of the Register, we will digress by supplying a large quantity of unpublished notes bearing on the ecclesiastical history of the West Riding of Yorkshire from 1672 to 1700. In 1672 Charles the Second issued his DECLARATION OF INDULGENCES. From the thousands of applications for licenses to preach, or for preaching places, (now preserved at the Public Record Office, London,) the following list for Yorkshire has been compiled by Mr. Marsh. The Indulgence lasted only till 1673, but the number of applicants shows that the severe laws from 1662 had not been effectual in securing conformity.

APPLICATION NOT APPROVED.

Trinity House, in Greasebrook, Rotherham, York, belonging to the Earl of Strafford, for a Presbyterian congregation.

The following notes I gathered some years ago from the West Riding Sessions Rolls. They are so voluminous that I shall content myself by little more than a bare recital.

Thomas Bentley, constable of Southowram, procured an indictment against Thomas Wakefield and others, for not attending the Parish Church at Halifax, and not receiving the Sacrament, 1675. Also against the said Thomas for calling the constable a fforsworne rogue, and saying the King's precept was a ffratching paper. Thomas Wakefield's name will be found frequently in the preceding pages from Heywood's Register.

Sarah Hurd, on Sunday, March 7th (old style), 1674, in a very disorderly and seditious manner, com'd into the Church of Bradford in time of divine service, and did then and there by some indecent and clamorous speeches disturb the minister in his prayer and the whole congregation in their devotion.

Nicholas Shippen, and Elizabeth his wife, of Barnbow, summoned for not attending church: Pontefract Sessions, 1675.

William Taylor and Elinor his wife, of Scoles, for the same, 1675.

At Doncaster Sessions, 1677, six indietments were preferred against David Noble, of Heckmondwike, and his hearers for holding a Conventicle at Batley.

Joshua Smith, of Halifax, was committed, 1679, for refusing the oath of Allegiance tendered to him. Ordered to be brought to Doncaster Sessions. He was a noted Quaker.

Robert Harrison and twenty-two others, of Garforth, Aberford, &c., bound to answer for Recusancies: Wetherby Sessions, January, 1678.

Henry Barrows, Constable, of Skipton, under a warrant for apprehending Popishe Recusants, took John Cotton, of Skipton, a papist, who called the constable "a pittifull rogue and rascall."

Peticon of John Ffox Bayliffe of the Maner of Wakefield haueing a prisnor one Robt Seele a papist, one Thomas Kirshawe of ye same religion came riding to my dore asking if the prisor. was gone. John ffox replyed and tould ye said Kirshawe yt ye said Seele was sett att liberty and yt Mr Thome Watterton came and lent him money to release ye sd Seele alsoe ffoxe tould Kirshawe if there was an honest man in Yorkeshire of a papist he thought yt Mr Watterton was one with that Kirshawe replyed againe yt a papist was as good a man as he and as good a religion, ffox tould him noe, ffor he tooke ye oath of Suprmise and ye oath of allegiance.

CONVENTICLE ACT.

Forasmuch as Joseph Hubert an old Irishman was brought to the Sesss. being suspected to be a Popish Priest and to have had a head in the popish plott who being required to fynd suretyes for his good behavvor hath refused to doe the same, committed to York Castle.—Wakefield, Jan., 1680.

A Conventicle, held at Heckmondwike, March 12th, 1681, was reported, when Josias Holdsworth was preaching at the house of Isabell Rayner, and persons were there from Gomersall, Batley, Mirfield, Heckmondwike and other places. It 1682 it is recorded in the Leeds Session Call Book that for six or seven years great numbers of people have gone to Topliffe Hall to an Independent Conventicle, and that Josias Holdsworth, of Heckmondwike, preached there in May last, when sixty persons were present.

At Rotherham Sessions, August, 1681, we meet with the traverse of Margaret Blackburn, of Langsett, a Recusant.

Doncaster, Jan., 1682.—Wm Bridges Rector of Castleford certifies that Thomas Fleming of Houghton for several years a popish Recusant did 3 or 4 months agoe declare his sorrow for persisting so long in that his recusancy whereupon he procured his absolution from the Ecclesiastical Court and since that time hath duly resorted to his parish church of Castleford as a member of the Church of England.—Dated 15 Jan. 1682.

Similar certificate by Sam. Hundle curate of Kirk Branwith and others, that Jane wife of Francis Kertshaw of Braithwait hath for some Lords days last paist com'd to the church to divine service and behaved herself orderly and decently, and is resolved to continew a dutiful and observant churchwoman for the future." Dated 15 Jan. 1682.

Doncaster, Jan. 1682, certificate—that Thomas Bishop of our toune of Hatfield hath bene of late several lords dayes at our parish church durenceing the time of divine service & doth promise to be a common frequenter of the same. Dated Jan. 15, 1682. Signed by Simon Simpson the minister and others.

Mr Yarbrough's record of a Conventicle "Speaking or praying," in 1682.

Certificate dated 17 April, 1683,—John Collins hath & doth in all things behave himself as a true conformeable son of the Church of England as now established.—Signed Jo Brewer, curate of Drax.

Tempest Illingworth, of Tong, Labr., indicted for speaking severall maliciouse and oprobrious words in contempt and derogation of the booke of Comon Prayer, Leeds, July 1687

The foregoing notes corroborate the statements made in some histories that the time of greatest persecution under the Stuarts was in 1683-4. Other particulars respecting the persecution of the Quakers will be found in Besse's Sufferings, and of other Nonconformists in Calamy's Lives of the Ejected, but I am not aware that anyone has gathered full materials for a history of the Yorkshire Sufferers.

We have now reached the period of the "Glorious Revolution," and I am delighted to be able to place in a permanent form a list of the Founders of Nonconformist Congregations in the West Riding; a list, probably complete, which I gathered from the numerous bundles of Sessions Rolls preserved at Wakefield. My extracts extend from 1689 to 1700. They are entered under the so-called TOLERATION ACT.

POPISH RECUSANTS.

It would be interesting to continue the search from 1700 to 1800, but it does not come within the period of this Register. I will conclude my notes from the West Riding Sessions Rolls with another list of Roman Catholics.

Mrs Catherine Palmes a Roman Catholick how living at the house of Mr Thomas Waterton of Walton in ye west rideing hath by undue means and practises got into her custody Ann ffrances Stringer daughter of Wm. and Christabella Stringer, Gentleman and Gentlewoman, protestants, (an infant) and detains her from her mother, ordered that she be given up.

The Simile of a Letter from the Rev. Oliver Heywood to the Rev. Thomas Joliffe.

Reverend and dear
Brother

June 12 1700

Your letter by your maid I received yesterday, and glad to hear from you, but sorry for your bodily sickness, and desire to sympathize with you, god will gradually turn us from and weary us out of the world that heaven may be more welcome, this road which draws us to god, makes us wait for heaven
I am heartily sorry for that unhappy reaction amongst our friends in Sweden, and summat upon the 3 of James - for our summer calisthics they are like in some other places, bodies ill to the nation and our liberty and if my ink, or breath, or blood would afford a plaister, I should employ for they have writ and are due to me, but what can man do? I am sorry to hear that we have miss'd it a thousand ways, and he miss'd with us, and I am sorry for my faults, that they may walk in the first I must make it matter of my faults, that they may walk in the first would I might and soften of the Holy Ghost may be rid of - But to be of the Lord and comfort of the Holy Ghost may be rid of - But to be we have not many scrips for the Lamb, on the one side, and for the sing the song of Moses and the Lamb, on the other - I wish you Accept this little breath as a thank - your obedient and affectionate servant
Oliver Heywood

The Remains of a Letter from the Rev. Oliver Heywood to the Rev. Thomas Joliffe

Reverend Brother
and dear

June 12 1700

Your letter by your maid I received yesterday, and glad to hear from you, but sorry for your bodily infirmity, and desirous to sympathize with you, god will gradually remove us from and weary us out of the world that heaven may be more welcome, that rest which desires or that love which draws us to god, makes us meet for heaven
I am heartily sorry for that unhappy reaction amongst our friends in London, a sad comment upon the 2^d of James - our dear friends in that and the like in some other places, bodies ill to the nation and one liberty and if my ink, or breath, or blood would afford a plaister, I should rejoice for they have been and are close to us, but what can now do? I am sorry to hear that Mr K hath missed it in your ways, and he must either seriously repent, and solemnly declare via publick profession, or he cannot expect that either god or man, will be reconciled to his sin, will bring shame and shaming our selves is the best fruit of it, I presuppose if the Lord will to requite honor to him, to which I have some peculiar obligations: I am glad you have so far copied of your self in this affair, and have been so kind to him and him, and that he shows any relentings but that not enough, them that sin, rebuke, better all I think so especially preachers, and I think a time of probation of the truth of repentance may be fit. I am troubled for his prejudices ag^t you and silence to your letters: I am for some palliating, yet avoiding ye, accusing any ones faults, rigor in laics may suit in clerics, but ye it is frequently observed that when men brag to draw up the clouds they oft run for back make worst constructions of tollerable opinions, aggravate things to the height, and prejudices are raised, and generally will bring stories out of themselves, clearer to proportionate dissimulations: I wish there had been more caution and moderation, used by our Christian brethren, had they conferred with some of us at first, unless matters came to this head, and might who knows but such scandall had been prevented, and yet for all this if both sides would be wise, willous, and quietly state their case, methinks something might be done, by the ministers of Christ at a distance, for must confess I am not capable of reaching them or concensing personally with them, nor is it fit for them to come, but some proposals of general training of accommodation subscribed by 2 or 4 of us, and presented to them might make an experiment, how far that may goe before there be a total rupture, for I should be sorry to see a schism should be a hair breadth years, let the dissenters alone and they will destroy themselves, god will both its authority as much as that Apocryphical books - you that live years may have favor, opportunity to help them, and the dissenters they have for your person, gift, grace, age and graces, it is likely to put an eye to the matter as you know, and I shall contribute the best assistance that lies within my power, if you or they shall signify what purchasing is most therein, and methinks there seems some necessity of their examining, upon several considerations, but I cannot enlarge, for your I must make it in the way of my poor prayers, that they may walk in the fear wonder, humble and softness of the Holy Ghost may be redoubled - Our Brethren of the word, and comfort of the Holy Ghost may be redoubled - Our Brethren we have not many steps by our fathers house: neither our sons shall unmanly sing the song of Moses and the Lamb, with one godly friends and brethren, nor Accept this little token as a token - your obedient servant
Oliver Heywood

CORRECTIONS.

PAGE.

- 18—April, add 1645.
- 23—1526, read 1652.
- 32—Five baptisms omitted, added on page 108. The baptisms for six pages after p. 32, are copied from Mr. Heywood's Vellum Book, probably by Mr. Dickenson.
- 33—Insert [1684] before April 1.
- 42—panu, read per annum.
- 62—Mr. Robert Ferrand's second wife is not given in the Ferrand pedigrees.
- 64—After last line, add 'suddenly, July 21, 1696.'
- 65—The latter-half of the entries on this page are evidently for 1680, continued from p. 63,—1679. The rest on pages 63-4-5 are after-insertions, and of dates stated from the Vellum Book.
- 74—Read Tobie ff., del mm.
- 76—Lager, read Sager.
- 76—Galkroger. This gentleman, curate of Haworth, is omitted in my list in Haworth Past and Present, and in Mr. James' Bradford. The Rev. C. B. Norcliffe, M.A., York, had kindly supplied the omission before I met with it in Heywood's Register. He probably succeeded Mr. Moore in 1684 (p. 107); he appears as curate in 1699 and 1701.
- 78—Henley, read Honley. So given in the "Vellum Book."
- 80—From this page the burials profess to be numbered, but there are numerous errors, besides the gross one it commences with, 1679. On page 86 is a sudden drop of 600.
- 101—Wm. Garth's wife Ann. So given in Calverley Register.
- 108—Murgatroyd, 170 [5] ?
- 110—115—Mr. Marsh's list contains several errors. For Coope read Core. Ford read Todd, Hull read Hall, Jaile read Sale, Leighton read Laughton en le Morthen.
- 117—Ind. is an abbreviation for indicted.

- 120—Mr. Norcliffe recognises in Michael Gawbutt of Snaith, Mr. Tawbutt or Talbot, whose inventory he has printed; see History of Snaith.
 148—Edward Jackson's house.
 268—Thorp of Horton, read Hopton.
 276—Confined, read conformed.
 325—Horton Chapel (?) Hopton.
